Guest Speaker

Dorothy Matheson introduced the Hon Kris Faafoi Minister for Civil Defence and Commerce and Consumer Affairs, as well as the Associate Immigration Minister.

Kris was educated at Canterbury University and The Broadcasting School. Kris worked for both the BBC and TVNZ before becoming an MP in 2010.

Kris advised that it is great to now be in government rather than opposition so that he can help take action to put policies in place.

In the Commerce portfolio Kris is looking at more control of money lending to vulnerable people. In Consumer Affairs an investigation into the supermarket duopoly pricing and perhaps also petrol prices. In the Immigration Portfolio he sometimes has to make tough individual decisions in the best interests of New Zealand.

A review of Civil Defense response plans is underway. The Civil Defense Department is a small government department. The first response to civil emergency lies with local authorities and the government only steps in for major incidents such as the Christchurch Earthquake. Kris emphasized that each individual should have a plan and sufficient assets to survive up to 5 days without assistance after a major disaster occurs.

Kris handed out civil defense check lists and bags.

Julianne O'Kane thanked Kris for his interesting talk. [more photos at end of Bulletin]

Sergeant Alf

Fines were handed out for holidays away, scoring less than 100 points at 10 pin bowling, new cars and new shirts.

10 Minute Talk

Reg Barlow spoke for 6 minutes about he how he became a Web Site Super Sales Man. Reg's father was killed in a mining accident on the West Coast when he was a baby. He was raised by his mother, grandmother and sister. Reg's mother moved away from the West Coast to Christchurch so that Reg would not grow up to be a miner or forester or an alcoholic! Reg was a ratbag at school and joined the Post Office as soon as he could. Reg progressed through the Post Office ranks but left when Rogernomics took effect. Reg now has a Gold Card and loves using it.

29th of January 2018,

Kia Ora,

My name is Chantel Jones and I am now a year 12 at Paraparaumu College.

At the end of 2017 I received the Sue and Jack Leslie Rotary Club of Paraparaumu award for the top of history. I am writing to give my thanks to you for the prize that I received alongside my award at last year's year 11 prize giving.

I am very grateful for the prize that has been sponsored by you and your organisation to go alongside this award. I will be putting the prize towards my studies this year. Prize giving is an exciting day and getting an award is a rewarding experience. To have your successes acknowledge is nice especially when you have worked hard throughout the year. To get a sponsored prize is extremely rewarding to know that I've done something special to receive a special type of award.

I am very appreciative for the prize that I got alongside my History award and I am happy to say that I am continuing to study history again this year.

Yours sincerely,

Chantel Jones
